Traffic Deaths May Hit 2,280

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan faces a highway death toll of 2,280 this year, the highest in history, state police report.

Police said the grim estimate is based on the rate of increase in fatalities for the first seven months of this year. Traffic deaths for the first seven months totaled 1,179, an increase of 21 per cent over the same period a year ago.

If the trend continues, police said, the 1964 highway slaughter will top the previous high of 2,175 deaths in 1937. The toll last year was 1,885 persons killed on highways.

The deaths on highways so far in August this year mounted to 158, an increase of eight over last year. Delayed death reports zoomed the July total to 226, the worst record in the last 273 months and the first time in nine years that a monthly total has topped 200.

State police said the driving mileage in Michigan was only up seven per cent over the same period in 1963. The death rate has climbed far higher than should be expected for the miles driven, state police said.

Fair Store Safe Cracked; Over $3,000 Taken

The Fair Store, one of Escanaba's largest retail establishments, was robbed of cash estimated at between $3,000 and $4,000 last night.

It was the second time within a little more than two years the Fair Store was hit by safe crackers. On June 11, 1962, about $4,500 in cash was taken.

Last night's burglary was a "strong arm" job in which heavy tools were used by the thieves to "peel" off the metal covering of the large safe and then pry through the concrete. A bar was then used to pull open the locking pins and force open the safe.

The burglary was discovered at 5:55 a. m. today by William Courter, 1525 N. 20th St., the Fair Store janitor. He immediately made a report to police and they contacted Dean Abbott, the store manager.

Investigating officers found the large safe in the third-floor office of the store building ripped open. Tools that had been used in the burglary had all been removed by the thieves. One money box from the safe was found in the fire room in the basement.

There was no evidence that force had been used to open any door or window in the building. One door on the second floor was unlocked but was unopened.

Drys Prepare For Campaign

CHICAGO (AP)—The Prohibition Party wrapped up its national campaign convention Friday with resolutions criticizing the candidates of both major parties, the anti-poverty program and the so-called neglect of the American Indians and Eskimos.

The resolutions were passed by the 56 delegates to update the 26-plank platform approved last year.

The Prohibition Party called President Johnson's recently passed anti-poverty program "both unrealistic and tragically inadequate" because it failed to deal with what the party said is the basic cause of poverty—indulgence in alcohol.

The party urged the government to take "positive steps to realize constructive use of the vast sums of money now devoted to individual indulgence."

There was no elaboration. The American Indians and Eskimos have been neglected over the years, the party charged. It recommended a program of adult education, restoration of fishing rights and equal opportunity for the Indians and Eskimos.

The party refused to endorse or support either President Johnson or Republican candidate Barry Goldwater.

"Neither of the candidates takes a clean-cut, clear-cut position in support of certain basic Christian principles and practices in ethical government," it said.

The Prohibition Party's candidate for president is E. Harold Munn, 59, of Hillsdale, Mich., head of the education department of Hillsdale College.

The vice presidential candidate is the Rev. Mark R. Shaw, 75, of Melrose, Mass., who is retired. Both candidates were nominated a year ago at a St. Louis convention.

Apparently the elevator had been used by the burglars for it was halted on the first floor. It had been left at the third floor at the closing of the store Friday night.

Police said it appeared possible that someone had stayed in the building until after the store closed, and then had let others in later.

The Friday night burglary was the second within a period of a little more than two years. On the night of June 10 or early June 11, 1962, the Fair Store was the victim of apparently professional safe-crackers who burned open two safes in the third floor offices and made off with about $4,500 in cash and bills plus clothing valued at about $200.

Portable acetylene torches were used to burn open the safes in the burglary back in 1962. The tools had been stolen earlier by breaking into a garage of the Warshawsky Brothers at Manistiquie. The torches were taken into the Fair Store, carried to the third floor on the elevator, and abandoned there after the safe was opened.

The burglars who burned open the Fair Store safe in 1962 were later picked up for a safe-cracking job at Port Washington, Wis., and there confessed to a series of burglaries, including the one at Escanaba.

The burglary last night was unlike that of two years in method but had some aspects of similarity including the use of the freight elevator to transport safe-cracking tools. Law enforcement officers of the region have been alerted and the investigation is continuing.

Sen. Humphrey Gets Spotlight Down In Texas

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—Nobility doubted today that President Johnson had in mind some sort of big public showing of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey to Texas.

But how, when and where remained a mystery.

There was speculation that Johnson and Humphrey, the Democratic vice presidential nominee, might hold a joint news conference, with their wives looking on.

But Press Secretary George E. Reedy said Johnson had not scheduled any such affair.

Old friends and neighbors were planning a big Texas-style blowout for Johnson tonight at Stonewall, near the LBJ Ranch. But Reedy, when asked whether Johnson was going, said "he wasn't planning either way."

One thing Reedy was certain about was that Johnson did not regard his acceptance speech in Atlantic City Thursday as isolationist. Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee, had called it "perhaps the most isolationist acceptance speech in modern American history."

The Johnsons and the Humphreys arrived at the LBJ Ranch Friday afternoon after a flight from Atlantic City, N.J., with a promise to lead the Democratic party to victory in November.

Chicago Lady Pilot Survives; Crash Kills 2

CODY, Wyo. (AP)—A courageous Chicago woman, survivor of a plane crash that took the lives of her father and brother, was brought to safety in a seven-hour horseback ride during a snowstorm Friday.

Miss Roberta Kowaczek, 25, a buyer for a Chicago store, spent two nights in the rugged mountains near Yellowstone National Park.

"I don't know how she got through it," said Paul S. Roth, district ranger for the Shoshone National Forest and one of her rescuers.

Plane Hits Peak

Miss Kowaczek was piloting her brother, Peter, 19, and their father, Richard Kowaczek, 51, both of Chicago, on a fishing vacation in a rented plane when they crashed Wednesday at 11,500 feet altitude during heavy winds. The plane went down in the Silver Tip Basin, a few miles from the eastern edge of Yellowstone.

Miss Kowaczek, who received her pilot's license a month ago, kept the belly of the plane up as it hit the peak. The maneuver probably saved her life, rescuers agreed.

She was knocked unconscious and awoke to find her brother and father fatally injured. Roth said it appeared the teen-ager never moved after the impact but that the father may have lived long enough to crawl out of the wreckage.

Wind Delays Search

The tiny brunette, suffering from a concussion and cuts and bruises, melted snow for water, dragged some picnic supplies from the plane and tried to make a shelter of a suitcase.

The first night of near-freezing temperatures passed with search efforts thwarted because of wind.

A search pilot spotted Miss Kowaczek Thursday and thought he saw another survivor as well. Sleeping bags, food and other survival gear were dropped, but she apparently couldn't find the food. The second night passed.

When the rescuers, led by Sheriff Harley Kinkade, arrived, they found her holding an unopened can of soda pop. She asked Kinkade who he was and then asked for a can opener. She said she had been able to find no more patches of snow to melt.

After waiting in vain for a helicopter to buck the bad weather, the party started down—three men riding, the fourth man on foot and leading a horse ridden by Miss Kowaczek.

"We kept her talking all the way out to keep her spirits up," Roth said. "Once she started to break down, but only for a few seconds. Then we sort of kidded her out of it and she said 'I'll be okay now.'"

Miss Kowaczek was taken to Coe Memorial Hospital.

A party went to the area today to remove the bodies.

Wildcat Strike Move Threatens GM Plants

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers union summoned its General Motors Council to Detroit today to combat what it said was a threat of wildcat strikes against the giant of the automotive industry.

The UAW has threatened strike action against the smallest of the big three, Chrysler Corp. on Sept. 9 if no agreement is reached on a new contract there meanwhile. It would demand GM and Ford meet what-

Menominee Cut Off Deer List

LANSING (AP)—A legislative committee has ordered Menominee County deleted from a list of the areas where antlerless deer will be allowed as legal targets this fall.

The committee also ordered that Livingston County be divided into four areas for such shooting of does and fawns—this to control the influx of city hunters, protested by farmers.

The joint legislative committee on administrative rules, headed by Rep. Carroll Newton, R-Delton, otherwise agreed to go along with a policy of limited harvesting of antlerless deer in southern Michigan, as recommended by the State Conservation Department.

The committee previously had suspended the department approval of special seasons for sections of Menominee County and nine areas in the southern Lower Peninsula.

"We did not feel there was enough proof and justification for the special season in Menominee County," Newton said. "And after hearing the objections, we felt Livingston County should be divided into the four areas to better control hunter pressure. We did agree with the department that some of the herd should be harvested in the other areas."

Three Rescued From Lake Erie

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—Three businessmen returned home today after a brush with death in the choppy waters of Lake Erie within the noisy fringe of a Coast Guard target area.

They had struggled to keep afloat for nearly 13 hours Thursday after their 26-foot cabin cruiser sank Wednesday night, 10 miles off the Toledo, Ohio, shore.

Shells burst about them before help arrived.

Keith Griffin, president of a wrecking firm here, had taken two friends, Bill Adler, an insurance agent, and Norm Hilgeman, president of a sign painting company, for a day-long cruise in his new boat.

They felt the boat shake as they passed between two small islands returning to the Toledo Marina. Investigating, they found water gushing into the engine compartment.

Griffin and Hilgeman, donning ski-belts and float cushions, plunged into the water to swim for help, leaving Adler with the sinking craft.

Shortly after daybreak, the Coast Guard began firing practice. Adler said shreds of the bursting shells drifted about him.

Another cruiser, occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Agli-sky of Toledo, spotted Adler waving a red float cushion and thought he was warning them of the restricted Coast Guard area.

Drawing nearer, they realized his plight and picked him up. After an unsuccessful hunt for his two companions, the couple returned Adler to port and notified the coast guard. A cutter found Griffin and Hilgeman clinging to a buoy.

None required hospitalization.

Today's Chuckle

The football season is when you watch the numbers on sweaters instead of in 'em.

ever terms it won at Chrysler.

In addition to allaying union-reported threats of wildcat walkouts against GM, today's 300-member meeting was called to martial support from that company's 354,000 UAW members for the 80,000 members who would be thrown out of work by a Chrysler strike.

Leonard Woodcock, UAW vice president in charge of its GM department, said there was unrest among rank and file over what he termed lack of progress in negotiations which opened the last of June.

GM local unions in general have raised the biggest howl for "improvement in working conditions" and until Chrysler's selection as target Wednesday, UAW President Walter P. Reuther had insisted that GM dictated to Ford and Chrysler virtually a parallel economic offer by the big three Aug. 17.

The time and date of the Chrysler deadline set by Reuther were taken by most observers as accommodations to President Johnson.

UAW contracts at all big three members run out at midnight Monday. But traditionally, the Democratic candidate for president has opened his campaign in Detroit on Labor Day, Sept. 7.

A strike headed by a union whose president is one of his strongest supporters obviously would embarrass Johnson, so he asked Reuther Tuesday in Washington to give him a little more time to decide on whether to continue this party Tradition.

That same night Reuther shifted talk of strike from Aug. 31 to Sept. 9.

It would cost the union only $1.6 million a week to stage a walkout at Chrysler, while at GM a strike would take a weekly bite of $7.7 million into the UAW's record strike fund of $66 million.

Wind Collapses Water Storage Tank At Saline

SALINE (AP)—A sudden gust of wind was blamed for the collapse of a partially completed municipal water storage tank Friday. No persons were injured.

Spokesmen for the Chicago Bridge and Iron Co., builders of the 140-foot high tower, said the tank portion of the tower crashed to the ground after being struck by a heavy steel plate.

The steel plate was being lifted into place by a crane. The gust of wind struck as the plate was being positioned.

The 250,000 gallon tower was scheduled for completion by the end of this year.

Hurricane Dies, Leaving Florida Disaster Areas

BRUNSWICK, Ga. (AP)—However, damage north of Palm Beach was relatively minor.

After Cleo went to sea north of Jacksonville late Friday, the weather bureau took her hurricane status away. Top winds had dropped to 65 m.p.h. in gusts.

However, forecasters—who underestimated Cleo's strength when she was south of Miami—maintained a hurricane watch from Brunswick to Charleston, S.C. Gale warnings are also displayed.

All areas of Florida's east coast that Cleo battered were declared disaster areas and made eligible for long-term, lost-cost loans.

The weather bureau estimated Florida damage at $200 million, most of it in the "Gold Coast" area from West Palm Beach to Miami which Cleo raked with winds of up to 135 miles an hour.

Cleo battered millions of dollars worth of citrus from trees south of Cape Kennedy, opening the prospect of higher prices next season. Sugar cane also suffered heavy damage along the shore of Lake Okeechobee, and some fall vegetable crops were wiped out near the coast.

The tourist centers were quickly putting themselves back in shape to attract visitors. Power was restored to more than half of metropolitan Miami. The major hotels had dried out their lobbies, hauled the sand out of their pools and started looking forward to business as usual.

Cleo wore herself out as she struck along the Florida coast from Miami to Jacksonville.

Winnebago Indian Prefers Prison To Reservation

CHICAGO (AP)—A Winnebago Indian who said he'd rather go to prison than to the reservation has been placed on two years' probation for selling narcotics.

Judge Joseph Sam Perry granted the probation Friday after Leon C. Mike, 20, said he had been offered a job as athletic counselor at the American Indian Center in Chicago.

Judge Perry had considered sending Mike to an Indian reservation in Winnebago, Neb., but relented when Mike said he'd rather go to prison. "The reservation is a rather depressed area," Mike opined.

No Settlement At White Pine

WHITE PINE (AP)—New contract negotiations between the White Pine Copper Co. and the United Steelworkers Local 5024 collapsed Friday night with no progress reported and no further talks scheduled.

The present contract between the company and union expires at midnight Monday. Local 5024 members last Sunday voted overwhelmingly in favor of a strike in case a settlement is not reached by Monday's deadline.

Negotiations had been in progress two months before the breakdown Friday night. State and federal mediators returned home immediately after collapse of talks.

White Pine, among the nation's largest underground copper operations, offered the union a three-year pact calling for a 28.85 cents hourly increase. The offer was rejected by the union, which has demanded a 34-month contract and 71.5 cents an hour.

White Pine, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Copper Range Co., has some 1,750 employees of which 1,400 are members of Local 5024. Most of the workers reside in Ontonagon County, but the firm also is considered an important economic factor in Gogebic, Houghton, Baraga and Keweenaw counties in Michigan's Upper Peninsula and in Wisconsin's Iron County.

Copper Range Co.'s Champion mine at Painesdale and its mill at Redridge already have been struck.

With the resultant lack of rock haulage traffic causing layoffs on the Copper Range Railroad, some 2,000 Upper Peninsula workers could be idled.

Several fires were set during the night. A hat shop was looted and then set afire. Five police cars were overturned and many others had broken windows or dented bodies. One taxicab was upset and set afire.

The main focal point was at Broad St. and Columbia Ave., near Temple University and some 25 blocks from downtown Philadelphia. Broad is one of the city's major arteries.

The disturbances broke out sporadically at perhaps as many as 20 different points during the night, starting shortly after the original incident.

Over 125 Hurt As Pillagers Battle Police

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Negro rioting and looting broke out in a wide area of Philadelphia's north side Friday night and the pillaging continued sporadically today.

Roving bands, 2nd grad 158 most of them teen-agers, smashed windows, looted stores, threw bottles and stones from roof tops and attacked policemen. Looting was widespread and damage extensive.

The crowds hooted and jeered Negro leaders who asked them to halt the disturbances.

"Work of Hoodlums"

Police Commissioner Howard R. Leary, in personal charge at the scene, had 700 helmeted policemen, carrying riot sticks, in the area but sporadic looting continued for hours after daybreak. Leary said the rioting "was the work of hoodlums."

Thirty-two policemen were injured, one suffering a skull fracture. Civilian casualties totaled 95. Arrested were 102 adults and 5 juveniles, all Negroes. Most of the injured were released after treatment in hospital emergency wards.

It was the first major Negro disturbance in Philadelphia this summer and, as had been the pattern elsewhere, it started over a comparatively minor incident. Negro policemen answered a call to remove a stalled car occupied by Negroes, from an intersection.

The wife of the driver, Mrs. Odessa Bradford, 34, of Philadelphia, protested when police began to move the car. In the argument, police said, she punched an officer and was arrested on assault and battery charges.

Packed in Tenements Bystanders moved in on the police as they tried to take her to the police station. They radioed for help. Bradford himself was not arrested.

Rioting spread throughout the four-square-mile slum area, and additional police moved in. Perhaps two thirds of the city's estimated 600,000 Negroes live in this section, most of them in row tenements tightly packed into every available space. There was no estimate of how many took part in the disturbance.

Mayor James H. J. Tate interrupted his vacation to meet in emergency session with his cabinet at City Hall.

Commissioner Leary ordered every off-duty policeman to report immediately to the riot area.

Leary said the rioting was the work of a "hoodlum element."

"We realize the area will have to be policed for many days," he said. "We'll be prepared."

Windows Smashed

The rioting began about 10 p.m. Friday. As dawn broke today, it lit up a bizarre scene. Negroes were standing in the streets as far as the eye could see. There were many women and children. In size, it looked like a Christmas shopping crowd, except that everywhere stores had broken windows. Broken glass was strewn on streets and sidewalks.

The business district on Columbia Avenue, between 12th and 15th streets, looked as if it had been ripped by a hurricane. Merchandise dropped by looters was everywhere. Policemen were strung out by the hundreds during the morning on Columbia Ave. but looting bands of Negroes marched in and out of the battered stores as soon as they felt a policeman was not watching. Crowds smashed store windows that had not been broken in the night.

The main focal point was at Broad St. and Columbia Ave., near Temple University and some 25 blocks from downtown Philadelphia. Broad is one of the city's major arteries.

The disturbances broke out sporadically at perhaps as many as 20 different points during the night, starting shortly after the original incident.

Local Contests Few In Primary

Michigan's general primary election will be held Tuesday, Sept. 1, and except for local candidates who are seeking nomination for legislative offices there are no contests in the primary at the county level.

Because there are no primary contests for Delta County offices, there is no county ballot offered.

For example, voters will not find the county offices or candidates listed on any primary ballot. The Democrats, who now hold all county offices, have no nomination contests. The Republicans offer only one county candidate and he is also unopposed in the primary.

The names of all of these unopposed county candidates will, however, be on the ballot in the general election to be held Nov. 3.

School Millage

There will be four ballots offered voters in Tuesday's primary election—plus a separate "yes" or "no" proposition on school millage in the Escanaba Area Public Schools district.

The school millage proposal—to levy 4 mills for five years to finance school operations—has aroused considerable public interest. The Area School district is composed of the city of Escanaba and the Townships of Cornell, Ford River and Wells.

All voters, both owners of property assessed for taxes on the local tax rolls and non-property owners, may ballot on the school millage question.

In the primary election voters may not "split their ticket" and vote for candidates on both the Republican and Democratic ballots. To do so will cause the ballot to be rejected.

Primary Contests

Democrats have primary contests for 11th District Congressman and for 37th District State Senator, with three candidates for each office.

Seeking the 11th District congressional nomination are Theodore G. Albert, Russell W. Bradley of Menominee, and Raymond F. Clevenger of Sault Ste. Marie.

In the contest for State Senator, two of the three candidates are from Escanaba. They are Todd V. Gayeff and Glenn G. Moreau. Gayeff is an Escanaba business man and operates AEG Electric Co.; and Moreau is a member of the City Council, the Board of Supervisors, and is employed by Harnischfeger Corp.

The Republicans have nomination contests for state, congressional (except 11th District congressman) and legislative offices from Governor Romney down. Gov. Romney, seeking a second two-year term, is opposed for nomination by George N. Higgins.

Four For Senator

Candidates for U. S. Senator are Edward Meany Jr., James F. O'Neil and Elly M. Peterson. Victor A. Knox, Sault Ste. Marie, incumbent, is unopposed for nomination as 11th District congressman following the death of John B. Bennett, who was congressman of the 12th district before redistricting.

There are four candidates for 37th District State Senator: Kent T. Lundgren, incumbent, formerly of Menominee, now of Escanaba; Harold J. Vanlerberghe, Escanaba; Fred K. Taber and Thomas F. Scheigert.

Vanlerberghe is traffic manager for Mead Corp. Escanaba Division, is a member of the City Council, the Delta County Board of Supervisors, and active in civic affairs. Lundgren is a Menominee pharmacist.

Three candidates seek nomination for 107th District Representative in the State Legislature. They are Clifford E.

Erickson, Marian Gibson and Vern Smith.

Voters will be offered four primary election ballots here, plus the school proposition. The partisan ballots are:

Republican Ticket

Governor—George N. Higgins and George Romney, incumbent.

Congressional—U. S. Senator: Edward A. Meany Jr., James F. O'Neil and Elly M. Peterson. Representative in Congress, 11th District—John B. Bennett and Victor A. Knox, incumbent.

Legislative—State Senator, 37th District: Kent T. Lundgren, incumbent; Thomas F. Scheigert, Fred K. Taber and Harold J. Vanlerberghe.

Representative in the State Legislature, 107th District—Clifford E. Erickson, Marian Gibson and Vern Smith.

Democratic Ticket

Governor—Neil Staebler.

Congressional—U. S. Senator Philip A. Hart, incumbent.

Representative in Congress, 11th District—Theodore G. Albert, Russell W. Bradley and Raymond F. Clevenger.

Legislative—State Senator, 37th District: Todd V. Gayeff, Glenn G. Moreau and A. M. Schneider.

Representative in the State Legislature, 107th District—Einar E. Erlandsen, incumbent.

Judicial Ballot

There are 10 candidates seeking the three nominations for Judge of the Court of Appeals, Third District. The three candidates receiving the highest vote will be nominated and their names will appear on the ballot for the November general election.

The 10 primary candidates are Maurice Black, Robert B. Burns, Austin J. Doyle, John W. Fitzgerald, Donald E. Holbrook, Robert G. Howlett, Allan C. Miller, Philip H. Mitchell, Carlton H. Morris and Andrew H. Wisti.

Delegate Ballot

Both Republicans and Democrats will elect delegates to their county conventions in the primary. Electors may not vote for more than two delegates—and these must be written in, whether on paper ballot or on the voting machine.

There are separate ballots for Democrats and Republicans. The voter must be sure that he votes for (writes in) as delegates only the names of persons residing within the precinct or township in which he (the voter) lives.

Scholarship

Nine scholarship recipients have been announced by the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers. The recipients, along with the institutions where they may attend include: Northern Michigan University; Miss Sara Lynn Berglund, Skandia.

Putnams Find U.P. Hard Sell

Harold and Beatrice Putnam presented their 45-minute show of king sized color slides, "Exploring Michigan's Upper Peninsula," to a group at the State Office Building Friday night under the auspices of UPCAP.

The Putnams, who have created the fine picture book of the U. P., "North To Adventure in Michigan's Upper Peninsula," have just finished a week of presentation of their slide show with narration and musical accompaniment at Newberry under sponsorship of the Luce County Chamber of Commerce.

More than 100 persons attended the free show each evening, most of them tourists. The Putnam's show stresses the autumn colors of the Upper Peninsula and urged their audiences to tour the Upper Peninsula in the fall if possible for one of the world's greatest color spectacles.

Putnam said "The tourists were tremendously interested and we understood why, because we're tourists ourselves. The natives are the hardest people to sell. Where we had a hundred tourists and one native, that would be a pretty good proportion."

"A native is a native, wherever he is, and we're the same way in our home in Detroit. We don't get out to see its attractions like Greenfield Village the way we should."

"Walter Gries used to tell the story about the native and the tourist watching a beautiful sunset. At last the tourist was moved to exclaim 'Isn't it beautiful!'"

"Yep," said the native, 'pretty good for Ishpeming.'

"That pretty well illustrates the point of view. The native agrees that it's pretty good, but you've got to drag it out of him. The tourist will take a picture of the sunset and show it to all his friends back home and they'll come up here and take pictures of the sunset."

"We think that everybody should be selling Michigan, but to do it you've got to know what you have to sell. We look on our book as a sales manual of the Upper Peninsula. And our slide show is an attempt to make the sales manual entertaining and interesting, so that it will come alive and excite people."

The phrase "ear marked" comes from the English farmers' practice of notching the ears of their cattle to identify them permanently.

School Tax Is Liveliest Issue Of Tuesday Vote

Interest in the Escanaba Area in Tuesday's primary election does not appear high. The lack of local contests contributes to the rather general apathy reported by candidates in their campaigns, although there are important contests for Congress and for state senator on the Democratic ticket and for U. S. Senator, state senator and state representative on the Republican ticket.

There is probably as much interest locally in the effort of the Escanaba Area School District to obtain approval of a 4 mill tax for school operation for five years as in any other issue.

The need for more income to meet rising school expenses is a general one in Michigan and has resulted variously in curtailment of school program where increased school income has been denied and in higher taxes where it hasn't.

Jack Ham Scores Success In Lead Of South Pacific

John "Jack" Ham is superintendent of the paper mill at Packaging Corporation of America's Filer City mill, lives in Manistee, Mich., is married and has five children—and has a fine baritone voice that won him acclaim in a recent production of "South Pacific" by the Manistee Civic Players.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ham of Ford River Road, and has visited here frequently. Mr. Ham senior will be remembered for his contributions to the musical life of Escanaba, both as a singer, and as director of the Barbershop Chorus.

Jack Ham sang the lead male role of Emile de Becque that Ezio Pinza made famous in the original cast of "South Pacific" on Broadway opposite Mary Martin. Reviewers praised the Manistee Civic Players production and Ham's portrayal.

Schools Feel Financial Pinch

EAST LANSING (AP)—Most of the state's 1,414 school districts will feel a pinch of higher enrollments and costs this year, reports the Michigan Education Association.

Some, who have passed local measures increasing the allotment for school aid, will be able to cope successfully with the press of students, the association said. Others will have to resort to double and triple shifts, half-day schedules and curtailed services, the report continued.

Close to 77,000 school teachers will return to classrooms with the children.

While most school systems have filled vacancies on teaching staffs, others are still looking for instructors, particularly in the fields of special education, science and English, said the association report.

Some 140 new school buildings have been opened. But makeshift, portable classroom units still will be needed. Trailer-like structures have sprouted on playgrounds over the summer and will be pressed into use as classrooms this fall.

The fall pupil total was estimated at 1.85 million, slightly lower than the 1.915 million expected by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Lynn Bartlett.

To cope with increasing enrollment, the association said, language laboratories with tape recording and teacher-listening devices have become standard equipment in most modern schools.

Millage And Education

Escanaba Area School District voters — all of them — can vote Tuesday on a proposal to levy 4 mills ($4 per $1,000 of assessed valuation) for operation of the school district for the next 5 years.

Sampling of voter opinion indicates that the issues is in trouble and unlikely of passage. This would be regrettable and an error on the part of the public.

The money to be raised would go mostly to pay teachers. Some of it would be used for bus transportation of children under the new state law which permits school districts to bus students to all schools, public and parochial.

To keep its faculty substantially intact the area district gave its teachers a raise. The money for it must come from the proposed new tax, or else the raise will increase the district's deficit. The district budget is $1,621,000 for the 1964-65 school year, an increase of $224,000 over last year. Unless there's more income, there'll be a deficit of more than $200,000 to pay off eventually, plus the interest charges it accumulates.

Thus, realistically, any "NO" vote doesn't cut school spending, it actually increases it by deferring payment of school debts and incurring a carrying charge.

Nevertheless there appears to be a serious danger of rejection of the 4 mill tax for school operation. Comments of many voters indicate this. Much of the comment is apart from the issue and indicates a welcome for any excuse not to pay school taxes. This is the real issue in the election, whether the Escanaba Area wants to pay what it costs today to provide good public schooling here.

There seems a receptive audience for any detractor of the school system, and an inclination to top him. This is a freedom which Americans enjoy, but its exercise shows the size of the local educational problem.

The Press in its Letters column published this week a letter from a respected local person who used the pen name "Marky Hunter RFD" and who wrote in the guise of a child complaining about high school taxes on an already burdened family. The letter so incensed some friends of education that they investigated and reported that the writer's Escanaba home bore a net city tax after exemptions of $2.90. The 4 mill tax would cost Marky 80 cents a year.

Such opposition to school spending is not unusual and has in many instances a pretension of righteousness about it, as though the board of education and the faculties were in some kind of conspiracy to bleed the taxpayers. No one likes to pay taxes (the school teachers included.) The board of education doesn't like to increase taxes, but it has been elected by the people, mind you, to tell the public what should be spent on education.

It regards the 4 mill tax as absolutely necessary.

By voting no confidence in the school board and rejecting the millage the voters would be taking a very serious step. They would be voting for an inferior school system.

The Escanaba Area's spending on schools is not high on any basis of comparison. It is below the average for the nation. It is below the average for this region. It is low in the listing of U. P. cities. It will still be moderate, comparatively, after the 4 mills are voted.

It should be voted not only because we must pay our teachers enough to attract good ones, but because we must, by our every action demonstrate that we know which way the salvation of our nation lies and that we are willing to sacrifice for it. This way is education.

Citizens could make no greater error than to deny our young preparation for maximum usefulness to their country.

and the Michigan State

The period between Thanksgiving and Christmas is the time we all make contact once again with old friends we've known "along the way."

A page from a letter from a former neighbor and mother of two boys might be of interest to other mothers. Here it is in part:

"Kenny is 12 now. To talk shop, you might like to know he lost his last baby tooth on the first day of school this fall. It still was a perfect tooth, no decay that I could see. He made it through these first 12 years with only two small fillings in his baby teeth. None of his second teeth are decaying yet."

"We think the good results on Kenny's teeth were due to several things. He was breast-fed—maybe that doesn't make any difference, but at least we didn't have the sugared formula for him. Also, during our stay in Ann Arbor he had the advantage of fluoride in the water."

"But I think the best thing for him was the way Ken senior handled his sweets. Any cereal at our house is always eaten unsugared. Snacks are strictly of the non-sweet variety. We have a "sweets hour" only once a week—on Sundays after supper. On these occasions Ken brings out some candy and we all fill up."

"In addition to our own candy, the kids are allowed to eat the candy they've acquired from barbers, grocers and well-meaning friends during the week. They're really very good about bringing it home intact. The holidays, too, are candy days for the kids, but after they're over we go back to our strict once-a-week regimen. I really think the kids enjoy it more that way."

"Gum, of course, has always been strictly forbidden, but it required some little persuading on Ken's part to make the rule."

stick. I can still see the scenes. Kenny was seven at the time, and "branching out." It was difficult for him to see the other boys chewing all kinds of gum all the time and having to refuse it for himself. So he began chewing some, very slyly in an amateurish way. It wasn't long until his dad discovered the awful truth, and told him to spit out the stuff and never chew it again.

"To get back to the story ('I married an ogre'), a week later Kenny was caught gum-chewing again, poor boy, on a day when his dad came home early. The king-sized swats on Kenny's bottom literally echoed off the neighboring houses. He created some new dance steps trying to ease the shock. I was both pained and delighted. He came running in for sympathy from chicken-hearted me, and I gave him some, but sandwiched in a lecture about how hard we were trying to give him a good and healthy start in life."

"Kenny saw the point, I'm sure, but couldn't let the occasion pass without a sad and tearful complaint that seemed a little beyond his years: 'Sometimes, Mom, Daddy isn't the kind of daddy I hoped I'd have!'"

"For myself, I think he's just the kind a growing child needs at times. Kenny hasn't touched gum since."

Watercraft Tax Being Collected

LANSING (AP) — The secretary of state's branch offices will handle watercraft registration, renewals, transfers and address changes beginning Friday, says Secretary of State James Hare.

Branch offices also will collect use tax on watercraft under a new state law which requires use tax to be collected prior to transfer of watercraft registration.

Washington Comment

WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

By law, the U. S. government is bribe-proof. The Constitution specifies that no federal employee can accept gifts of any kind from foreign states.

Conscientious U. S. officials who are given tokens of esteem by foreign governments promptly turn them over to the State Department. The gifts are wrapped in brown paper, neatly labeled and locked up in a basement room.

When the faithful servant retires from service—presumably he is then beyond the reach of bribery—the State Department reminds Congress and a bill is passed allowing him to collect his presents.

The last such blanket bill covering retirees was passed in 1958, and since then the medals, watches and trinkets have been piling up.

Rep. Wayne Hays, D-Ohio, has just introduced a new housecleaning bill.

Marine Gen. Graves Erskine, who retired in 1961, hopes it will pass soon.

Erskine was given a medal by the then Crown Prince Constantine of Greece in 1959. Constantine is now king of Greece, and Erskine has accepted an invitation to the royal wedding in Athens Sept. 18.

Although Marines traditionally frown on diplomatic small touches, Erskine fears that the conspicuous absence of the Greek medal would cause a good many uplifted eyebrows in Athens Sept. 18.

Big issue in Robert Kennedy's race for the New York Senate seat is his Virginia residency and Massachusetts voting domicile. But, after New York City Mayor Robert Wagner endorsed Kennedy's candidacy, a Washington newsman noted:

"If you count all those trips Bobby took up there to confer with Wagner, he must have established a New York residency."

Jumping into a cab at LaGuardia Airport on a recent evening, Sen. Ken Keating, R-N.Y., Robert Kennedy's probable opponent this fall, was greeted with an outraged roar from the driver:

"What are you doing here? I just drove you into the city."

Lawyer Serving In Prison Sued For $64,584

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A former Grand Rapids attorney and state public administrator was named defendant Thursday in a $64,584 lawsuit filed by Standard Accident Insurance Co.

Ralph J. Rodgers currently is disbarred and serving a 2-to-10-year term in prison for embezzling funds from an estate of which he was administrator.

Rodgers was sentenced after pleading guilty in 1963, to charges of embezzling $12,708 from the estate of John Wagenaar.

In its civil suit, the insurance company mentions this and two other estates from which it said Rodgers took money illegally. It listed shortages of $40,000 from the estate of William Heide, and $4,615 from that of Mrs. Jennie Beville. The company said it had to make good all three shortages.

from here this morning!"

Keating explained that he gave a noontime speech in New York, returned to Washington for an afternoon's work and was back in New York for a dinner speech.

The explanation didn't suit the cabbie:

"You must be crazy about planes," he said.

As Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater continues to press for GOP unity, one observer who remembers the hard-line position the Goldwater forces took in San Francisco, comments:

"They're now binding up the wounds of victory."

Several New York Republican congressmen recently were ribbing their Democratic colleague, Hugh Casey, about President Johnson's turnabout on civil rights.

As they continued to cite the President's congressional opposition to civil rights legislation, Casey pointed out with a smile:

"You boys keep up this kind of talk and Lyndon will win the South yet."

Letters To The Press

Dear Marky Hunter,

After reading your letter of Aug. 27, I think that you are a real person just like P. V. Canthook.

If your Mommy and Daddy could do their arithmetic, they would know that public education is the best bargain they could get. This is especially true, if you have "lots of kids."

We learn arithmetic in the public schools, so we can figure this out. I'm sure that your folks wouldn't want you to grow up both poor and ignorant, so how could they get you an education any cheaper than through the public schools?

If your Mommy had gone to school, she would have learned to sew in home arts. She would have learned something about budgeting, too. Your Daddy would have had some training in wood-working, so that he could fix your leaky roof.

If they could read, they would know that the jail tax will not be on the tax bill this year.

So, poor, little lad, remember to be grateful every day of your life that our country provides a means for all of us to improve our lot in life through public education. It is the least expensive way to do so much.

Brad Bender, 8 years old (as told to his mother) Mrs. Frank Bender Jr.

Dear Marky: First, I have to tell you, how amazed I am at your ability to write such a fine letter. Seven years old, and already you write letters and read newspapers. You must have been gifted with a high intelligence.

No doubt you will need the best that educators can offer you. Just the highest caliber of teacher can keep you challenged for 11 more school years. I hope for your sake, we can give you what you'll need to fulfill your potential.

Marky, through your own education in an up-to-date school system, you may grow up to find an easier life than your folks. If you don't get the schooling you need, you'll be a lost asset to our community. What is good enough for your parents is not necessarily the best for you.

By the way, the tax load would not be higher next year

Drivers Warned About Children As School Begins

EAST LANSING (AP) —

Motorists soon should be watching out for children, since opening of schools will soon bring 2.2 million youngsters into the weekday traffic pattern, state police reminded today.

Increased care is urged on protecting rural school buses from involvement in accidents.

Particular alertness should be shown the "first-timers"—the some 200,000 young ones who will be entering school for the first time this fall, police said.

These children still have not learned school safety rules and are not as aware of traffic hazards as older students, police reminded.

There were three persons killed and 419 injured in rural school bus accidents in the state last year. The death toll also showed the killing of 115 pedestrians and 24 bicyclists during the year, all under 15 years of age.

More people get more news from newspapers than from all other sources combined.

Ann Landers Status Of Baby O.K. Under Law

Dear Ann: In 1954 I married a man I hated because my mother talked me into it. He was 12 years older than I, had a little money, and my mother said I would learn to love him later. This man turned out to be an animal. He was brutal and demanding.

I'm not making excuses for myself but I began to see a man at work and fell in love with him. He returned that love. I asked my husband for a divorce. His answer was "never."

I became pregnant by my boy friend and still my husband refused to give me a divorce. When I checked into the hospital to have the baby I used my husband's name. The birth certificate reads that he is the father.

Six months later my husband met a girl he liked, so he gave me a divorce. I married the father of my child. Now I want to get the birth certificate changed so it reads as it should. How can I do it?—B. F. G.

Dear B. F. G.: The certificate DOES read as it should. Leave it alone.

The law doesn't care who you were going with when the baby was born. The law is concerned only with your legal status, and at the time the baby was born you were married to your first husband. So forget it.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm almost 17 and have never had an honest-to-goodness date. Several fellows have asked me to go to the movies or to a party, but it was either fixed up by someone else or the invitation went like this: "I'm in a spot. Judy got the measles and I need a date for the dance tomorrow night. Can you go?" I feel more like a rescue squad than a female.

At least once a week some fellow drives over to talk to me about a love problem he is having with another girl. They all want advice, because I am so "sensible," but nobody wants ME. I'm getting tired of lending them my shoulder to cry on. Does this role ever lead to romance? — THE SISTERLY TYPE

Dear Type: If the fellows cry on your shoulders it proves they know you have shoulders.

Continue to give them your counsel and eventually someone will notice the rest of you.

The boy-girl relationships which begin on the platonic

Kids often have car sickness and dad, too, when a payment comes due.

level are often the most solid. When the friendship catches fire—it's love.

Dear Ann Landers: I am writing to you about a problem that is giving me an ulcer. I need your help, because I'm no good at telling people off.

My husband's sister has a 16-year-old daughter who smokes. They are over here about five nights a week to look at our color TV. This girl drops ashes all over the rug and has burned two holes in my coffee table.

She has a habit of going to the refrigerator and helping herself. You'd think she never saw a pie, or a cake, or a cookie before—the way she eats her way through my pantry.

Last night she ate half a jelly mold I had prepared for my bridge club which is meeting today. I'm afraid if I tell my sister-in-law how I feel it will be the end of our friendship. Please advise me.—MYRTLE

Dear Myrtle: What friendship? These freeloaders are using you and your color TV as their major form of entertainment.

This is more your fault than theirs. People who allow themselves to be dropped in on (5 nights a week yet!) eaten out of house and home, and then get an ulcer because they haven't the courage to speak up, get no sympathy from me.

Parents are people—they can be right and they can be wrong. To help understand their viewpoint and to promote harmony at home, write for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How to Live With Your Parents," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

"A typical American is one who comes home from an Italian movie in his German car, has Brazilian coffee out of an English mug, sits down in his Danish chair and picks up a Japanese ballpoint pen to write to his congressman to support 'Buy American' legislation."

PIPEKLEANER IS IRKED NO END IF ANYONE HE'S DOING BUSINESS WITH GETS HIS NAME OR ADDRESS WRONG....

President, 56, Called Fit For Vigorous Life

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson, 56 years old Thursday, has his party's overwhelming endorsement for another term in office and his doctors' assurance he is physically fit for "an active vigorous life."

The verdict of four doctors on his physical condition was disclosed by the President Wednesday as he led newsmen on a 4 1/2-mile hike, talking as he circled 15 laps around the back driveway of the White House.

Loping easily along in the high-humidity heat Johnson convinced less-athletic newsmen of the doctors' finding that his "exercise tolerance continues to be superb" despite a serious heart attack in 1955.

He took a few more fast laps later with his choice for a running mate, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota; took time out for an informal birthday

Dry Party Maps Drive On Evils

CHICAGO (AP)—The prohibition party's candidate for president—a Michigan man—says he regards socialism, secularism, alcoholism, obscene literature and "that satanic menace," communism, as threats to the nation's well-being.

E. Harold Munn, in a speech to the Prohibition Party convention Thursday, said the country should meet the evils "with a vigorous and dynamic program of constructive Christian action."

Some 56 delegates attending the party's national campaign convention heard Munn call growing secularism the most fundamental and threatening problem in some respects.

He called alcohol and "the abominable traffic which supports it" a curse.

Munn, 59, head of the education department at Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Mich., told newsmen the party's goal is to take over leadership of the nation's government.

"We're a reform party—not merely a protest party," he said.

Munn, 59, who was chosen in August 1963 in St. Louis as the party's presidential contender, said the prohibition party is not a one-plank affair. He said the current platform contains 26 planks covering all major problems confronting the nation.

Living Costs Rise Is Noted

WASHINGTON (AP)—Living costs rose three-tenths of one per cent in July, the largest monthly rise in a year, the Labor Department reported.

However, the increase "does not appear startling" in view of general price behavior over the past 10 years, a spokesman for the Bureau of Labor Statistics said.

Sharp increases in prices for meats, fresh fruits and vegetables were the main factors in the overall July rise of the consumer price index to 108.3.

This index reading means it cost $10.83 in July to purchase items that could be bought for $10 in the 1957-59 period, used as a base of 100 in the price calculations.

A 2.2 per cent increase in prices for meats, poultry and fish boosted the over-all food index nine-tenths of one per cent from June to July.

Sidney A. Jaffe, deputy assistant commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said the figure did not reflect any increases from the withholding of meat animals from markets by some producers. He said the effects of this, if any, would not show up until the September index.

Despite the July rise, meat prices were still 1.4 per cent below a year ago, the bureau said.

Other July price increases included two-tenths of one per cent for transportation and two-tenths of one per cent for medical care.

Housing costs were unchanged, as lower prices for furnishings and fuel offset higher prices for some house-keeping supplies and services.

Michigan Folks Saw Little At Atlantic City

ATLANTIC CITY (AP)—Some Michigan delegates went to the national convention, sat through every session, but never saw what was happening except on television. A few hardly saw that.

The reason was that Michigan's seats on the convention floor were so located that 30 of the 102 delegates had their views of the rostrum obscured by a photographers' platform, draped with curtains.

A television screen was erected at the rear of the scaffold, about seven feet off the floor, but even the delegates' view of this was often blocked by the ever-shuffling delegates, newsmen, messengers, and visitors.

Former Gov. John Swainson, Michigan's national committee man, said he was considering raising the subject of curtailing the activities of television crews on the floor.

Most of the activity concerning the Mississippi delegation's seating took place near the Michigan seats, located adjacent to Mississippi's.

On the first three nights of the convention, demonstrations brought the television crews—reporters, cameras and producers—rushing to the scene, along with scores of other newsmen, delegates and sergeants-at-arms.

"I think maybe we should have two conventions—one for the television people and one for the delegates," said Swainson.

"That's how bad I think it was," Swainson said he thought the problem of television seeming to dominate the floor activity should be subjected to some inquiry by the national committee, although perhaps not immediately.

Food Producers Insecticide Use Okayed By State

Producers of fruits and vegetables are marketing products that are well within the insecticide tolerances, judging from analyses of samples collected and tested by the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Of 287 samples of fruits and vegetables tested so far this year, not one disclosed over-tolerance of insecticide residues, said Agricultural Director George S. McIntyre.

The samples were collected at all levels of the trade by representatives of the Department's Foods and Standards Division and included asparagus, strawberries, cherries, blueberries, tomatoes, celery, raspberries, currants, string beans, sweet corn, cabbage, apricots, plums, nectarines, carrots, lettuce, and cucumbers.

Bouquets of white gladiolus and chrysanthemums adorned the altar and decorated the sanctuary of St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Escanaba today for the wedding of Grace Arlene Hanrahan of 8011 Burleigh, Milwaukee, and Dean Clifton Eberhardt, Glendale, Wis.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Edwina Z. Hanrahan, 819 Ludington St., and the late William P. Hanrahan. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Eberhardt, 2344 W. Custer Ave., Glendale, are the bridegroom's parents.

The double ring ceremony was solemnized at high noon by Fr. Jordan Telles, OFM, pastor of St. Joseph's. Mrs. Charles Roloff Jr., of Milwaukee, soloist, sang "Ave Maria," and "Panis Angelicus." Organist was Miss Alice Cossette.

Brunch was served immediately following the ceremony at the House of Ludington and the reception will be held from 4 to 12 p. m., at Marco's Starlite Room, with music for dancing by the Casuals' String Ensemble of Racine, Wis.

Bride's Ensemble

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, William J. Hanrahan of Hanover Park, Ill., was attired in a gown of silk organza over taffeta, with a slightly scooped neckline and above the elbow sleeves. White organza flowers encircled the midriff. The controlled bell skirt was floor length and two small bows trimmed the top of the very full detachable chapel train. She wore short white gloves and a crown of tiny flowers which secured her elbow length bouffant veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade of white carnations and stephanotis, centered with a lavender throated white orchid. In a traditional rite at the close of the service, she placed a basket arrangement of pastel pink gladiolus and snapdragons, accented with salal and trimmed with a soft pink bow and streamers, on the altar of the Blessed Virgin.

Floor length A-line dresses in aqua linen shantung were worn by her attendants with pillbox type headpieces detailed with a tiny bow in back and maline veiling, and short white gloves. The dresses were made with slightly scooped necklines, elbow length sleeves and a bow at the midriff. Their flowers were cascades of white glame-lia.

Bridal Attendants

Miss Edwina Hanrahan, Escanaba, was her sister's honor maid and bridesmaids were Mrs. John Gerlach of Milwaukee, Mrs. Robert Murray, Escanaba, and Miss Madeline Kramlich, Milwaukee.

The bridegroom's twin brother, Dale C. Eberhardt, came from Madison, Wis., to serve as best man. Two other brothers, Wayne of Decatur, Ala., and Earl of Milwaukee, with Ned Hanrahan of Racine, a brother of the bride, were groomsmen. Ned Hanrahan and Wayne Eberhardt ushered.

For her daughter's wedding and attendant festivities, Mrs. Hanrahan chose a pink linen sheath with pink and white accessories. Mrs. Eberhardt selected a beige ribbon dress. Both mothers were presented with lavender orchid corsages. The bride's godmother, Mrs. Lillian Reynolds of Green Bay and Round Lake, wore a white feathered carnation corsage with her black and white silk suit.

Mead Registers Opening Victory At Runkle Lake

CRYSTAL FALLS — Escanaba Mead got off to a successful start in the Upper Peninsula Class A softball tournament at Runkle Lake Friday night, spilling Copper Country Dairy 2-0 behind Todd Butler's classy three hit mound effort.

In the other tournament opener last night Iron Mountain Bosch edged Marquette Bob's Pub 6-5 in eight innings with Carl Lemin on the mound for the winners and Bill Bertucci tossing for the losers.

The victory moves Escanaba's Paper Makers into a second round game against Iron Mountain Bosch at 4:30 this afternoon. If they win that game they will play again Sunday at 1:30. If they lose this afternoon they will return to action Sunday at noon.

Mead scored both its runs in the bottom of the fifth. Con Yagodzinski singled and scored on a wild pitch and Tippy Legault stroked a single to score Bunny Martin, on with a fielder's choice.

Butler granted one base on balls and whiffed 11 batters. Losing pitcher Bob Williams also flipped a three hitter and fanned six.

Ryan Riddles Lions Defense With 19 Strikes

DETROIT (AP) — Coach George Wilson of the Detroit Lions still has a couple of weeks to resolve two of the most important elements of pro football — pass defense and pass offense.

The offensive problem may solve itself if quarterback Milt Plum recovers from an injury to his throwing arm.

"It's something like water on the elbow," announced Wilson after the Cleveland Browns soundly thrashed his minions 35-14 Friday night.

But Wilson noted it would take X-rays and further analysis at a hospital before the extent of Plum's ailment would be known.

Plum, impressive in three previous exhibitions, was at the helm with the Lions behind 21-7 when he was rocked by defensive tackle Frank Parker for a 17-yard loss just before halftime.

His replacement, Earl Morrall, could not rejuvenate the Lions.

Pass defense may pose an even larger problem. Brown quarterback Frank Ryan riddled the Detroit defense with 19 completions in 32 attempts for 376 yards and five touchdowns.

Alex Karras, Roger Brown and Co. Whittled this down to a net 310 yards by throwing Ryan for 66 yards in losses.

But Ryan's barrage of aerials kept Bruce Maher, Yale Lary, Dick LaBeau, Gary Lowe, and Larry Vargo leaping and diving in desperate defensive maneuvers.

"They had good receivers," said Wilson, "but who would have thought we would have to worry about our defensive backs."

"I'll have to look at the game films before I decide what I'm going to do," said Wilson, who kept newsmen out of the locker room for a full 20 minutes after the game.

The Lions struck first in the game with Nick Pietrosante scoring from two yards out, Plum set up the td with a 40-yard toss to Barr.

But Ryan drove his team to three touchdowns in the second period and a 21-7 halftime lead.

The turning point came when Ryan eluded the grasp of Karras and Darris McCord deep in his own territory and hit Gary Collins with a 44-yard pass for a first down at the Lions 33.

"Cleveland wasn't in the game until that play," agreed Wilson. "It gave them a lift and we never recovered."

After that it was all Cleveland. Ryan hit Paul Warfield for 21 yards and then dropped the ball in Collins' hands for the score on the next play.

Warfield scored on a 27-yard pass, and Tom Hutchinson took a seven-yarder for the third touchdown. This was set up by Larry Benz' interception of a Morrall pass. Morrall had three intercepted in all.

A 42-yard punt return by Walt Roberts set up the fourth Brown TD at the Detroit 10-yard line. In two plays, Ryan found Collins for another marker.

Burgess Strokes Homerun As Pirates Down Phillies

By The Associated Press
Smoky Burgess hadn't circled the bases in 2½ months but his 37-year-old legs had no trouble making the trip.

Burgess, Pittsburgh's squat, veteran catcher, rifled a home run — only his second of the season — and the three-run, ninth inning shot lifted the Pirates to a 4-2 victory over National League-leading Philadelphia Friday night.

The round man unloaded against reliever Ed Roebuck, capping a four-run rally in the ninth that temporarily snagged the Phillies' pennant drive.

Burgess, a 299 lifetime batter who is nearing the end of a 15-year major league career, had not homered since June 13, when his three-run circuit produced a 10-7 decision over the Chicago Cubs. He had driven in only 11 runs and was struggling at a .245 batting clip while playing infrequently behind No. 1 catcher Jim Pagliaroni.

The loss, Philadelphia's third in the last four games, trimmed the Phillies' lead to 6½ lengths over the runner-up Cincinnati Reds, whose game with Houston was rained out.

Third place San Francisco

nipped Milwaukee 3-2 on Lee Maye's ninth inning error; St. Louis topped the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-3 behind southpaw Ray Sadecki and the New York Mets outslugged the Chicago Cubs 12-10.

Baltimore divided a two-night doubleheader with the Chicago White Sox, losing the opener 2-1 and copping the second game 8-3, to maintain a one-half game margin in the American League race.

Boston knocked off the third place New York Yankees 5-3; Cleveland defeated Kansas City 4-1; Washington topped Minnesota 3-1 and Detroit swept a twin bill from the Los Angeles Angels 12-1 and 8-7.

Philadelphia's Jim Bunning, seeking his sixth straight victory and 15th of the season, had a three-hitter and a 2-0 lead going into the ninth. Bill Virdon led off with a bloop single to center and, one out later, Jerry Lynch drew a walk.

Roebuck replaced Bunning and Willie Stargell hit his first pitch for a run-scoring single. Then Burgess hit into the right field stands.

Bunning started the Phillies' two-run eighth with a single, the fifth hit off Joe Gibbon, took second on Cookie Rojas' single and scored on Johnny Callison's double. Rojas also scored while Callison was being run down between second and third.

Milwaukee's Maye led Del Crandall's single get by him in the ninth and Jim Davenport raced home from first base with the Giants' winning run. Loser Wade Blasingame, who pitched a strong five-hitter, walked Harvey Kuenn in the sixth and Willie Mays crashed his 39th homer for a 2-2 tie after Joe Torre's two-run homer in the second had put the Braves in front.

Bill White hit a three-run homer in the Cardinals' five-run third inning that erased a 2-0 Dodger lead. Sadecki, touched for a two-run homer by Willie Davis in the first inning, checked the Dodgers on five hits thereafter for his 16th triumph.

The Mets snapped a 10-10 tie in the eighth on Joe Christopher's fourth hit of the game and won for the ninth time in their last 11 games. Ron Hunt singled home two runs before Christopher delivered the go-ahead run. Jim Hickman doubled the last run in.

In This Corner with Ray Crandall

One of the biggest members of the Michigan Tech football squad this fall is Clarence Ehlers, former Holy Name athlete ... Ehlers, a freshman center, stands 6 feet 5 inches and tips the scales at 240.

At Michigan State, Coach Duffy Daugherty says that Jack Schindler, 214 pound tackle from Iron River who saw just 35 minutes of action last fall, is the man to beat for the defensive left tackle position.

Little Sherman Lewis (5-7 and 155 pounds) had a spectacular debut in the Canadian Football League last week with Toronto ... The former Spartan star accounted for 118 yards and scored one touchdown for the Argonauts.

Reno Pettenuzzo of Doran's Canadian team in the Class A tourney at Crystal Falls this weekend has pitched 20 no hitters in his six years in softball ... In addition to his mound duties for Doran's this season, Pettenuzzo twirls for a five-man unit (like the King and His Court) that takes on all comers in exhibition action in Canada and Lower Michigan.

Coach Pete Tinsley's Florence football team, defending champion in the Northern Lakes Conference, has 14 returning lettermen back in the fold this season ... Tinsley is a former Green Bay Packer lineman and an ex-Rock High School mentor ... Other schools in the Northern Lakes circuit are Wabeno, Eagle River, Crandon, Three Lakes, Leona and Elcho.

Coach Roy Hamilton of Rudyard has two new assistants on his football coaching staff this fall, and both of them carry impressive credentials ... Bob Kalbfleisch, line coach, is a native of St. Ignace and a four year grid letter winner at Northern ... Gary Shanley, backfield coach, is a native of Petoskey and also earned four varsity letters in football at Northern ... Both graduated from the Marquette school last spring ... Rudyard's first home game, under a new lighting system, will be played Sept. 12 against Holy Name.

Gary Bauman, former all America goalie at Michigan Tech has signed a professional hockey contract with the Montreal Canadiens ... Regarded as one of the greatest college net minders in the country, Bauman will report to the Montreal training camp in mid-September ... He is a native of Calgary, Alberta.

Louise Beldo captured her fifth Marquette Country Club women's golf championship this week, defeating Jean Thomson in the finals ... At Iron River, Maxine Hamacher won her fifth club crown in six years, defeating Lorrain Bociek 1 up in 19 holes in the title match.

Coach Marty Crowe, whose Marinette Catholic Central team captured the Wisconsin Parochial basketball championship last spring, has only eight returning letter winners on his football squad this fall ... The Cavaliers lost the service of 16 regulars from last year's offensive and defensive units ... They compete in the Fox Valley Catholic Conference.

Jerry Eckman, the fiery former Ironwood basketball coach who guided Merrill into the Wisconsin state tournament at Madison last season, is the new head basketball mentor at Green Bay Southwest which opens its doors for the first time this fall.

Holy Name's football foes, who saw plenty of quarterback Frank Trotter last year, will see even more of the classy senior this fall ... Coach Bob Nystrom says Trotter will go both ways this year, seeing action at safety on defense ... "He's too good of an athlete to sit on that bench," the Crusader mentor states ... Trotter was nothing short of sensational as a junior last fall when he completed 53 of 119 passes for 914 yards and eight touchdowns, ran the ball 54 times for 349 yards and scored five TDs ... He was honored as the top Upper Peninsula prep quarterback by the U. P. Sportswriters Assn. last fall.

Hogan Chasing Carling Leader

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP) — The wee ice man sent shivers up the spines of golf's strong young men today.

With the third round coming up in the $200,000 Carling World Golf Championship, there was the great Ben Hogan just three shots back of the leader, young George Archer, and giving no indication he might be ready to fall.

Hogan is 52, in semi-retirement for almost 10 years yet one of the greatest players in the world from tee to green.

Archer, the 24-year-old ex-cowboy, said the wind bothered him a bit as he soared to a 74 for a two round total of 139 and a one-stroke lead over PGA winner Bobby Nichols and Britisher Peter Butler.

Two strokes back were still-dangerous Arnold Palmer, Australian Kel Nagle and Richard Sikes. Palmer shot a 71 on the second round which included a triple bogey on the 16th hole when his second shot went into a lake.

Tony Lema and Chi Chi Rodriguez are bunched in the group at 143, while Gary Player and U.S. Open winner Ken Venturi were at 144.

Even Aguirre Hits As Tigers Win Pair

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Angels didn't stand a chance — even Hank Aguirre was hitting for Detroit.

The southpaw pitcher had been hitless in 41 trips this year. But he clubbed a double and a single and drove in three runs, besides holding the Los Angeles to one hit in seven innings in the opener Friday night.

The Tigers won the opener 12-1 and the nightcap 8-7, and ran their victory string to six in a row—five of them on the road. They boosted their fourth-place lead to four games over the Minnesota Twins.

Meanwhile, the Twins, who were tied for fifth place with Angels, dropped a 3-1 decision to Washington.

Don Demeter's sacrifice fly broke a 7-7 tie in the seventh inning of the nightcap. Demeter's hitting has been responsible for four of Detroit's last five victories.

Terry Fox won the nightcap—his fourth victory in relief—with four scoreless innings.

Norm Cash, who had three hits in the second game, crashed a double and a homer in the opener. He had five hits in eight trips for the day and drove in five runs.

The Tigers wrapped up the opener with six runs in the first inning, and held a 6-1 lead in the nightcap when the Angels slapped six straight singles and scored six runs, taking a 7-6 lead.

A triple by Bill Freehan and an infield hit by Dick McAuliffe tied the score in the sixth before Demeter's fly ball.

single and drove in three runs, besides holding the Los Angeles to one hit in seven innings in the opener Friday night.

The Tigers won the opener 12-1 and the nightcap 8-7, and ran their victory string to six in a row—five of them on the road. They boosted their fourth-place lead to four games over the Minnesota Twins.

Meanwhile, the Twins, who were tied for fifth place with Angels, dropped a 3-1 decision to Washington.

Don Demeter's sacrifice fly broke a 7-7 tie in the seventh inning of the nightcap. Demeter's hitting has been responsible for four of Detroit's last five victories.

Terry Fox won the nightcap—his fourth victory in relief—with four scoreless innings.

Norm Cash, who had three hits in the second game, crashed a double and a homer in the opener. He had five hits in eight trips for the day and drove in five runs.

The Tigers wrapped up the opener with six runs in the first inning, and held a 6-1 lead in the nightcap when the Angels slapped six straight singles and scored six runs, taking a 7-6 lead.

A triple by Bill Freehan and an infield hit by Dick McAuliffe tied the score in the sixth before Demeter's fly ball.

MANISTIQUE

Fair Vote Turnout Expected Sept. 1

A fair-sized vote is forecast for the Sept. 1 primary, particularly where township officer primaries are part of the balloting. The intense political interest engendered in the nation is expected to increase general voting, though probably more in the general election Nov. 3.

Township officers will be elected this fall and take office next spring under the new Constitution. Township officer primaries will be held in all townships of Schoolcraft county except Doyle, Germfask and Thompson.

No county officer primary elections will be held here but in all precincts there will be voting to elect delegates to county conventions of the political parties.

Due to the township officer voting this fall, Manistique township does not have enough room on its voting machine, so both the machine and paper ballots will be used. The city will use only voting machines, with precincts in the Youth Center, new city hall and Lincoln school.

Canvass Board In paper ballot township precincts, there will be four ballots, except in Hiawatha township which will be submitting a proposal to levy two mills for seven years for road purposes. Only property owners may vote on the millage issue under terms of the new Constitution, which requires property owners only vote on increases which run longer than five years.

Notices of meeting Wednesday, Sept. 2 are being sent to the county canvassing board. The 4-man board, appointed by the Board of Supervisors, will have only three this time, as Wilbur LaBar was elected to the Hiawatha school board and this bars him from serving on the canvass board. A successor will be named at the next board of supervisors meeting.

The primary election includes balloting for nominees for governor, U. S. Senator, 11th District representative, state senator from the 37th district, representative from the 107th district, and three for judge of the Circuit Court of Appeals created by the new Constitution. This court will hear appeal cases from the Circuit Court and will be intermediate between the circuit courts and the Supreme court. There are 10 candidates for the posts.

The 107th state representative district is the new one for Schoolcraft, succeeding the old Iron District. The new district has all of Luce county, all of Schoolcraft except Seney, all of Delta except Baldwin, Cornell and Maple Ridge townships and, from Chippewa county, the townships of Bay Mills, Soo, Sugar Island, Superior and Whitefish and the city of Sault Ste. Marie.

Seney township is in the 10th district, with Alger, Baraga and parts of Delta and Marquette counties.

Candidates for representative from the 107th district are Einar Erlandson, Democratic ticket, and Marion Gibson, Vern Smith and Clifford E. Erickson, Republican.

The 37th senatorial district consists of the counties of Mackinac, Luce, Schoolcraft, Chippewa, and Delta county in the U. P., and the townships of Burt, Munising and Grand Island and the city of Munising in Alger County, part of Antrim county and the lower peninsula counties of Otsego, Montmorency, Alpena, Charlevoix, Cheboygan, Presque Isle and Emmett.

Candidates in the senatorial

Suanne Bradley Bride Of Philip Stoken Today

In a double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Ingma in Zion Lutheran Church at 3 p.m. today, Suanne Carol Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bradley, Thompson became the bride of Philip Ray Stoken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stoken of 214 Elm St., Manistique.

The bride's sister-in-law, Marilyn Baker was maid of honor and best man was William Mattlin. Marshall Bradley, bride's brother and Dale Tigras, friend of the bridegroom, ushered.

The bride's ballerina-length gown of nylon lace was styled with a scalloped square neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and a taffeta skirt that veil was silk tulle and lace. Pink roses and white carnations formed her bridal bouquet.

The maid of honor wore a pink lace dress fashioned with a full skirt and a matching jacket with elbow-length sleeves. Her bouquet was pink and white carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bradley selected a taupe dress with matching hat and accessories. Mrs. Stoken wore a beige dress with matching accessories.

After a reception in the Thompson town hall, the newlyweds will leave for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination.

They will make their home in Appleton, Wis.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Manistique High School.

Water, Sewer Work Keep City Crews Busy

City crews currently are installing water and sewer lines to the new yacht club building and next week will install them for the new store building being constructed between River and N. Cedar Streets.

New 75 and 100 horsepower pumps, replacing 30 and 50 hp models have been installed at the pumping station in preparation for the use of the elevated water storage tank to be constructed under contract near Lakeview cemetery.

A water line five feet from the pumping station, leaked after installation of the pumps, and this has been repaired. Crews also have been working two weeks on clean-out of 500 feet of sewer transmission line an eighth mile from the sewage disposal plant, which became clogged with sand. It followed a cave-in on paper mill property, city manager S. C. Gesko Jr., said, near the area where the new railroad spur is being constructed.

In other activity, crews built a jury room in the old water tower building, where the Justice Court is now located, and cement has been poured to repair sidewalk following digups, featured a matching front panel of lace trimmed with iridescent sequins. Her bouffant

Guests Taking Motel Linens Are Apprehended

A call by a Manistique motel operator to State Police that a guest had left with two blankets and some other bed linen Friday morning brought prompt action.

The two men, James Boyd Dean, 25, of Lima, Ohio and Thomas Gordon Edens, 38, of Fort Jennings, Ohio, were apprehended by City Police on the westside and the articles were recovered.

Mrs. Harrison LaFollette identified them as being those from their motel.

2. In Memoriam

Roberts

In loving memory of our dear sister Josephine Roberts, who passed away 2 years ago August 30, 1962.

In our hearts we like to stray, Along the road of yesterday. To live again in memory. The happy days that used to be. To hear you laugh, to see you smile. To talk with you a little while. We love to linger on the way. That leads us back to yesterday. You suffered much, your pleasures few. You never deserved what you went through. You took it well, just what you suffered, none can tell, you closed your eyes and went to sleep. The heartbreak of that tragic day. Will never from us part. As long as life and memories last, You'll always live within our hearts.

Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by her 2 Sisters, Husbands and their Families, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Derouin

Roberts

In loving memory of our dear wife, mother and grandmother, Josephine Roberts who passed away 2 years ago, August 30, 1962.

Often a lonely heartache, And many a silent tear, But always a beautiful memory, Of the one we loved so dear. More and more each day we miss her. Friends may think the wound is healed, But they little know the sorrow, That lies within our hearts concealed.

Sadly Missed by Husband, Children and Grandchildren

Police Woman Becomes Nun

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — For 30 years her duties as a policewoman filled Alice Cullen's life with the problems of gunmen, robbers, prostitutes, dope addicts and abortionists.

Today she is looking forward to life as a Roman Catholic nun in the Dominican Order.

Miss Cullen, 51, resigned Friday from the Providence Police Force to become a postulant in the convent of St. Dominic at Blauevelt, N.Y.

She said she had always wanted to enter religious life and felt her personal situation made it possible now.

The desire to become a nun was with Miss Cullen, a tall, attractive woman, all the while she was on the force . . . carrying a loaded pistol in her handbag.

"Most criminals come from a background where there was a lack of affection and understanding," Miss Cullen said. "They felt left out of life. It sounds simple, almost corny, but most of them never had a home."

Despite her compassion for wrongdoers, Miss Cullen's career on the force was filled with action. She had a gun pointed at her by a thief. She has been knocked down a flight of stairs during an investigation and she once disarmed a man about to attack her with a knife.

"Love and affection, that's the answer," she said about the underworld characters she has known.

Kermit Sellevold, President of Ansorge, said the company will continue in an advisory capacity to the board of directors of Ansorge. The company will become a division of Ansorge.

South Viet Nam Downs Anarchy With New Chief

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — In a surprise move after two days of bloody rioting, a Harvard-educated economist, Dr. Nguyen Xuan Oanh, took temporary command of troubled South Viet Nam today as the nation's acting premier.

Oanh, 45, told a crowded news conference he had a mandate to rule for two months as head of a caretaker regime.

Speaking in fluent, colloquial English, Oanh said Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh is still South Viet Nam's premier but is now "sick" and recovering at the mountain resort of Dalat.

The surprise announcement came only a few hours after government troops cracked down on armed rioters who had brought Saigon close to civil war between Buddhists and Roman Catholics.

The two days of mob rule left at least nine dead and scores injured.

Oanh had served since Jan. 30 as premier Khanh's deputy premier for finance, but he was never seriously regarded as a contender for the top job.

There were strong signs of increasing American involvement in the Vietnamese government.

"I cannot see how cooperation between our two governments could be any closer than it has been," Oanh said.

Oanh said the nation still is ruled by the triumvirate of Khanh, Lt. Gen. Tran Thien Khiem and Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh.

Asked if the triumvirate would be likely to overrule any of his decisions, he said: "I don't think they will want to overrule us, and I don't think we will want to be overruled."

Chips And Splinters

Contributions To Chips Welcomed

The City Band, one of the community's most hard-working musical groups, has scored again. This time with none other than the top officials of the Chicago & North Western Railway Co.

Cecil Collins, director of the City Band, received a letter from C. J. Fitzpatrick, president of the Railway Co., following the Iron Ore Centennial celebration in July, in which the Band played a prominent part. Fitzpatrick wrote:

"I want to take this opportunity to let you know that I and my associates enjoyed the celebration in Escanaba in July. Our deep appreciation is extended to you for the role you played in making us feel welcome. With warm regards and many thanks."

Collins, who is a veteran C&NW Railway man, replied in part on behalf of the Band:

"It was indeed a great pleasure for us to have helped in a small way in successfully entertaining the C&NW officials in celebrating the Centennial recently in Escanaba."

Perhaps one of the more pleasantly nostalgic moments of the celebration was when Collins directed the Band in playing "I've Been Working on the Railroad" as part of the Iron Ore Centennial plaque dedication at the Municipal Dock.

Oconto County Reports First Withholding Act

OCONTO, Wis. — Oconto County sheriff's authorities said that the first incident of withholding action by the National Farm Organization in Oconto County has been reported.

Harley Garrigan, Lena cattle buyer, was at the farm of Mrs. Hulda Behnke north of Five Corners Wednesday. He had loaded a cow on his truck and was about to load a second when the incident arose. Several area farmers, identified as NFO members, appeared at the farm and held up further loading for several hours.

The sheriff's department was notified but by the time officers arrived, the incident had ended and Garrigan had left with the one cow. There were no attempts at violence, officers stated.

The U. S. Office of Education reports there were 1,576,000 elementary and secondary school teachers in the U. S. last fall, an increase of 69,000 over the number in 1962.
